Hi team -- forwarding the redline from Mike. I haven't looked at it yet, but I'll see if I can set up a team meeting to go over it.

Jacque --

I am attaching an updated version of the First Amendment to Order on Consent for your consideration. Changes to the draft of the document that you circulated on August 10 are shown in a redlined format. Given your e-mail from mid-day yesterday demanding that we provide a redlined version of the document to you today (we had previously discussed trying to get you a redlined version by the end of this week), the attached document has not been fully reviewed internally. We therefore may need to make further changes to the document.

With that said, I believe that the issues that are in play have narrowed significantly over the past weeks. My understanding is that the discussions between the technical teams earlier today was productive. I ask that you give careful consideration to the version of document that is attached and make every effort to move this process toward the finish line.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards.

Michael
